

Silky Guinea-flower Hibbertia sericea

Flowers: Flowers: can be variable, peaking October to December. H 30cm -1m x W 60cm

Small erect shrub with attractive foliage that produces profuse yellow flowers. Prefers well drained sandy soils in full sun to part shady positions. Long-lived but can be a little difficult to establish, so keep protect from disturbance, & moist during establishment.