

Heath or Silky Tea-tree Leptospermum myrsinoides

Flowers: September to November. H 0.5 -2.5m x W 1m.

Attractive twiggy small-leaved shrub with pure white to pink flowers. Grows well in moist to dry heathland soils. Full sun to semi shade but flowering best on the drier sandy sites in full sun positions. Makes a good hedge plant, pruning can be beneficial.

