

Common Beard-heath Leucopogon virgatus

Flowers: July to December. H 1m x W 60cm.

Small erect shrub with dark-green pointy leaves, producing masses of attractive tiny white flowers. Prefers well drained soils in full sun to partial shade. Hard to purchase from local nurseries, but would make an ideal addition to any bushland garden or rockery. Takes well to light pruning to bring on new growth.

