

Twining Fringe-lily Thysanotus patersonii

Flowers: August to November. H 1m x W 1m

A very delicate little climber or scrambling lily, its twisting leafless stem winds around vegetation, or in the absence of suitable vegetation, trails along the ground. Produces very pretty fringed purple/mauve flowers at the end of its branches. Prefers well drained sandy to medium loamy soils. Needs protection from disturbances.

