

Trachymene or Wild Parsnip Trachymene composita

Flowers: September to December. H 30cm flowerheads to 1.5m+ x W 1.5m

Lush leafy plant found in the sandy soils of the heathlands & woodlands. Attractive round white composite flowers on long stems. Naturally grows where the vegetation has been disturbed. Found in full sun or shady positions, really excels in moist shady areas in early springtime.

